Manufacturer Provided Description

The particularly sociable Sunseeker Camargue 44 has a wide cruising range and can take a boating party at high speed wherever they want to go. Offering good maneuverability and a stable performance, she provides comfortable accommodation and a spacious deck layout, which includes a full-size sunlounger as well as cockpit seating for eight around a folding dining table. Three people can also join the pilot in the large helm station. With a wet bar and fridge, a swim shower and a bathing platform, this elegant cruiser offers everything needed for daytime fun and nighttime comfort. The spacious saloon has deeply upholstered seating around a folding dining table, and is decorated with a choice of attractive lacquered interior finishes and veneers. There's a surprisingly large and well-equipped galley. For nights away, or for a little extra privacy, the Camargue 44 can provide full cruising comforts for six. There's a large en suite master stateroom forward and an en suite twin-berth cabin aft, and the saloon can also readily convert into a further double berth.

Accommodations

Step down into the luxurious salon/galley area with hi-lo dining table. Forward is the Master Stateroom with head and enclosed shower. Aft is the Guest Stateroom with separate head and shower. Ample storage and hanging lockers throughout. Also carpet runners throughout.

The exterior features full sunpad aft by the swim platform. Forward of that is a full U-shaped lounge seating with wet bar. The helm area has a double wide seat and room for 2-3 persons across to port on companion seating. Sunseeker dark blue hull color.
