SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

Designed by the world famous architects VPLP and built by CNB in France, PERLE NOIRE is a true owner's catamaran for safe cruising and ocean crossings. It has some fairly large hulls, keels for beaching and centred weight in order to optimize its seaworthiness and performances under sails. When the first Lagoon 67 was launched she was a step ahead in cruising multihull naval architecture thanks to the naval architects Marc Van Peteghem and Vincent Lauriot-Prevost who have taken the concept of maxi-catamarans into a new dimension by simultaneously increasing space, comfort and performance. Having undergone a recent refit, she is in turn key condition.
