Overview

Price recently reduced!!! A modest sized luxury sport yacht requires great aesthetic design, a robust build, excellent fittings, inviting livable space, and helm station equipped with state of the art electronics. This 2013 510 Sundancer bears these details to produce a masterpiece. Check and see why REAL LIFE should be at the top of your list.

EXPERIENCE MORE Her notable open and airy layout from the bow sun pad area to cockpit is perfect for entertaining while on board. LUXURIOUS FEEL The unique interior with the pneumatic sunroof above gives a luxurious feel as it allows fresh air and light to enter the enclosed helm deck and sunroom when desired. ADVANCED INSTRUMENTATION The well-designed control station is equipped with state of the art electronics with various upgrades.

COMFORTABLE LIFESTYLE ON BOARD Relax at the luxurious mid master stateroom that features a queen-size berth with designer fabrics and handcrafted wood trim.

She has been exceptionally outfitted and maintained by a very detailed owner. With her reliable traditional V-drive Cummins QSB 8.3 600 HO engines (591 Hrs), bow and stern thrusters her handling around the docks is effortless. She is equipped with the hydraulic swim platform, SmartCraft Digital Throttle & Shift (DTS), underwater lighting, cockpit electric retractable sunshade, Raymarine autopilot, Raymarine HD 72 NM radar, (2) Raymarine Hybrid Touch E125W chartplotter/GPS/Radar, Tracvision Satellite TV System, Raymarine 240 VHF, and Mercury Smart Craft Display to mention a few.

As you analyze the market, keep in mind she is being delivered with a 2016 XMO AB Inflatables with an Evinrude ETEC 40HP outboard engine and custom chocks. We estimate the value of the tender/chock package to be approximately $15,000.00.

REAL LIFE features include (but are not limited to):

- Preferred reliable proven power package twin Cummins QSB 8.3 600 HO engines with traditional V-drives
- 2016 XMO AB Inflatables with Evinrude ETEC 40HP outboard engine and custom swim platform chocks
