Overview

ALOHA, designed by HOLMAN and built by BERTHON (Hamble, G.B.) was commissioned by Captain Kemmis for the training of Royal Navy cadets. For 21 years, she was the property of a french ex-racer and captain of the French merchant navy who has assured her meticulous upkeep with the boatyard Scotto, Phocéenne sail-makers and Serge Marine Atelier (mechanics and electronics). She is in perfect condition. A racer with sleek and speedy lines and exceptional handling at sea, she lives up to expectations in regattas just as well as high-sea crossings ; which have been her principal purpose for 21 years. She has an exceptional level of comfort for a boat of this genre. There is the possibility to keep her fantastic berth on the Mediterranean coast.
