DETAILED INFORMATION

Overview

---

The Boston whaler 28 Conquest combines the fishability of a well-designed offshore express with the cruising comforts of a midcabin interior in an attractive and well-built package. Like all Whalers, the Conquest is unsinkable thanks to her Unibond foam-core construction. This is an expensive boat with handsome lines and above-average finish throughout. Anglers will find the Conquest's large cockpit fully equipped with a 30 gallon above deck livewell, under gunwale rod racks coaming bolsters, two in-deck fish boxes, rod holders and built-in tackle drawers. An aft facing seat behind the helm and a full-width stern seat that folds into the transom provide additional seating. Below decks, the Conquest's cabin is functional and well arranged with a convertible dinette/V-berth forward, a mid-berth beneath the companionway steps, a teak and holly-sole, a compact galley, and an enclosed standup head compartment. A transom door, swim platform, bow pulpit, and swim ladder are standard.
