Walk Through

Board via the hydraulic swim platform, access the aft deck using either of the dual stairways. The swim platform, stairway and aft deck have teak decking as does the starboard stairway that leads to the fly bridge.

The transom features a large trunk storage area, with lifting hatch amidships plus a swim shower wand to starboard. A lifting door accesses the crew quarters with its double berth and private head and shower.

The aft deck has a cushioned settee with a folding teak table. There are an additional 4 directors chairs providing al fresco dining accommodations for up to 8. Access the foredeck via port or starboard side decks that feature a safety railing running their perimeter to the bow.

The fore deck has a large sun pad with back supports, anchor lockers and anchor pulpit with windlass. Large forward facing and side windows provide excellent lighting for salon and visibility for pilothouse helm station.

The fly bridge has a teak laid deck as well. To starboard is a wet bar with hot and cold water, ice maker, drink cooler and electric BBQ with lid plus an added receptacle for a blender. The helm station is forward. There are helmsman and companion pedestal seats with lifting knee bolsters and a full helm console. Opposite the helm are double-wide sun pad cushions with adjustable back supports. The port side of the fly bridge offers 2 seating areas; a bench seat and just aft, a U-settee and adjustable teak top pedestal table. There are large storage areas below each of the settees.

Entering the main salon through the sliding glass doors from the aft deck, one finds, to starboard, a fully equipped entertainment center with a leather sofa just forward. A large, leather U-settee is opposite. There is a full galley on deck to port with dinette opposite. The main helm is to starboard and there is a door accessing the starboard deck. A stairway to port leads below.

The master suite is full beam with a centerline queen berth, settee, vanity, large walk-in closet and en suite head with shower.

The VIP stateroom is forward with an island Queen berth and en suite head and shower. There are 2 additional guest cabins. A twin berth cabin with en suite head and shower and a port cabin with over/under berths that shares the starboard head and shower.
