Overview

At 41 meters length OKKO is an all aluminium trideck delivered in 2012. The powerful, symmetrical and large rectangular shapes and forms are from the hand of the renowned designer Giorgio Vafiadis who gave the styling a modern, masculine and sophisticated feel. Going up to the sundeck, this fabulous area is designed to maximise the luxury areas on board and features a large round dining table which can seat up to 12 guests comfortably, offering an incredible panoramic view. The relaxation area holds a luxurious bar, an area with a BBQ, a Jacuzzi, ample seating and a sunbed area. The yacht's elegant styling and sleek design reveals a unexpectedly high volume, with an incredible volume of 367GT, she has much more volume than any of her nearest competitors.

The opulent interior has an understated chic feel to it and breaths luxury and comfort wherever you look, The high volume and powerful exterior lines blend in perfectly with the masculine interior. Since it has been a priority to the owner to have a noise and vibration free yacht, the shipyard has taken the utmost care in reducing the noise and vibration to the lowest level ever measured on this yacht. The highest quality interior furniture, build by Glyn Peter Machine, Baldi, Baccarat and Fendi accessoires, Haviland tableware and IPE Cavalli, no costs have been spared to turn this yacht into a beautiful blend of the owners taste and the designer transformation of their ideas.

The yacht boasts volume and whether she is lying in port or at anchor in a bay, she is there to impress. A large aft deck, spacious saloon, a full beam master saloon with en suite facilities, a huge galley to keep the guests entertained with the latest gastronomic delights. A constant theme throughout the yacht is the use of high gloss tobacco tinged tropical hardwood panels. The yacht has a very spacious main deck saloon, with a comfortable and classic interior setting, custom designed furniture and ample lights that falls into the large windows that gives lots of natural light to the area. Going up one deck, the upper deck saloon doubles as a media and cinema room, where black out curtains can transform this area into a cinema room, turning this area into a versatile space where comfort and relaxation are the predominant factors.

The on board entertainment system is the latest and the finest and among others, big 80' tv screens are to be found on the main deck saloon, the upper deck saloon and even on the sundeck. In the toy department you can have a ball, a large tender, Sea Doo jet skis, Seabobs, paddle boards, waterskis, wakeboardpool, a waterpool, and ample equipment for diving.

Built with care and attention to detail, Okko is the perfect yacht to charter out, or to use private and will run with a crew of only seven. A must see yacht.
