Accommodations

Saloon/Lounge An unusual feature to this sportfish is the custom built, removeable Eisenglass/Canvas door and bulkhead. When removed this leaves the salon completely open to the cockpit. Forward is a U-shaped Connolly leather sofa and ottoman with matching settee to port. Flat screen television is behind the settee on a lift for hideaway storage. Wet bar is to port and aft.

Galley Forward and down from the pilothouse is the galley. The large U-shaped counterspace is oversized in neutral brown and beige granite with center island to match. A very well-planned layout has everything at your fingertips with a Caldera halogen cook top to starboard and all other appliances well hidden in cabinets or behind matching teak doors. Keeps a streamlined and tidy galley. The beautiful raised panel cabinetry is varnished to a high shine.

Master Stateroom Located all the way forward, this stateroom sleeps two in a queen size bed with mirrored bulkhead and light sconces. Bed lifts to reveal storage beneath and hanging locker and drawer provide additional storage. Flat screen TV with receiver and sound system for your entertainment. En-suite bath includes Head Hunter toilet, marble shower, beveled mirrors, marble countertop and porcelain under-mount sink.

Guest Stateroom Located to port this stateroom sleeps two in upper and lower berths. The lower berth was widened for comfort. Hanging locker and low custom cabinetry for storage. AM/FM radio, CD Audio system and two flat screen televisions, one for each berth.

Cockpit

The spacious cockpit has built-in leather settee, facing aft, high gloss teak cabinetry and removable cover, Well-planned storage for tackle and gear for fishing makes for plenty of room. A custom high gloss teak table with four matching teak chairs can replace the two Sailfish and Blue Water Marlin chairs for cruising and/or al-fresco dining.

Deck Equipment

Swim ladder Windlass, electric

Safety and Security

Life rafts: Bilge pump: Dual switlik 6-man Electric
