SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

Shana Madel is a nice example of a three stateroom, two head Flybridge Pilothouse motoryacht. She is plenty fast for local cruising and long range for extended cruising. Her side decks were made wider for easy bow and stern access.

The McKinna 57' is a nice quality boat and has excellent resale value.

DETAILED INFORMATION

Vessel Walkthrough

Stepping onto the extra large swim platform you have a choice of two transom doors to the large cockpit. You enter the full beam salon through a sliding glass door and find Ultra Leather sofas on both sides with a coffee/dining table to starboard, the galley port forward and steps starboard forward to the raised pilothouse. There are stairs to the flybridge and a starboard side deck access door before you come to the starboard forward guest staterooms stairs. Once you are in the guest foyer below, you will find the master stateroom aft, guest stateroom to port, guest head to starboard and another guest stateroom all the way forward. Engine room access is through the lazarette.

There is a beautiful Birdseye maple wood interior throughout. The headroom is 6'8" throughout, except for the master stateroom, which is 6'5".

Shana Madel offers an amidships master stateroom with ensuite head, port guest stateroom with over/under bunks and a forward guest stateroom with a queen sized berth offset to port. The guest head is located to starboard.
