Accommodations

The Hunter 376 was built for performance and comfort. The rig with furling headsails and full batten main is set up for easily sailing shorthanded. The oval shaped cockpit has lots of room, plenty of storage, and is very user-friendly. Below decks, sleeps seven with forward and aft staterooms and center salon table and settee that converts to a berth. Salon seating is abundant with plenty of openings for air and light to keep an open atmosphere. The full service galley holds all you will need for entertaining or long family vacations. The head is to port, one head with stall shower (separate), Corian counter tops, and shower sump.

Galley

To starboard, the fully equipped galley holds a 3-burner gimballed LPG stove with oven and broiler, microwave, a built in trash can, double stainless steel sink, Adler Barber refrigeration freezer and separate refrigerator, hot/cold pressure water, and Corian countertops throughout. 75-gallon fresh water tank.
