Overview

This pilothouse cutter is truly one of a kind. Designed and built by Treworgy Boat Building in NE Florida, this one-owner boat was commissioned by her present owner who oversaw construction to ensure that she was tough and strong. Not only is she rugged, but she will turn heads. Her pilothouse is offset by a graceful hull design, and the low profile makes her look anything but "boxy" (as some pilothouse boats tend to do). Her owner has sailed both the Atlantic and Pacific oceans aboard her, and she now sits in St. Augustine, FL, awaiting her next adventure.
