Ft. of living area - more space than yachts twice its size. It features a built-in entertainment center, wet bar and stereo, plus plenty of ergonomically designed seating to keep your guests comfortable. The one-level living concept is a design difference that makes spending time on a Bluewater easy and attractive. Tucked away is the large master bedroom, guest rooms, storage space and restrooms to create a big, bright, open atmosphere. It's the perfect setting for entertaining friends and business associates.
