DETAILED INFORMATION

Vessel Walk Through

Stepping on board this boat at the swim platform, you will notice a swim-up stereo control system at the transom, offset from the integrated swim ladder. Stepping into the cockpit to port, you will see faux teak carpeting adorning the entire cockpit, with a large curved sofa and custom cockpit table to starboard. To port, at the base of the arch, there is a wetbar with refrigerator and storage compartment, with a love seat just forward of that. The helm takes up the rest of the space topside, with a double wide helm seat with flip up bolsters. Brand new Garmin electronics adorn the upgraded helm dash, with new steering wheel and updated Mercury Mercruiser smartcraft engine display. Moving forward into the cabin, the curving stairs lead you into an open floorplan cabin space. The head is to port, with a floating teak floor for the shower. Forward to port is the galley with stove, microwave, and refrigerator, it is everything you need for entertaining or preparing a meal. Across from the galley to starboard is the dinette table, with a large couch and cherry table. The master berth takes up the entire bow area with hanging closets on both sides of the bed, storage above the bed along the hullsides offers plenty of additional room. A hanging curtain stows neatly out of the way until privacy is desired in the master. The aft cabin space is a comfortable seating area until converted into a sleeping berth.
