SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

Excellent family Cruiser, the Regal Commodore 3760, ranked near the top of her class in luxury, performance, and cost. Built on a conventional modified-V hull, the strong point of this yacht is her spacious interior with its high-gloss cherry joinery, Corian counters, and leather upholstery. A solid wood pocket door ensures privacy in the forward stateroom, and the salon flows seamlessly into the midcabin, creating a large area for entertaining. The starboard settee folds out to become a double berth, and the refrigerator is positioned above the galley counter so you don't have to bend down every time you want a cold one. An elegant cherry-and-holly floor is standard, as is a flat-screen 15-inch TV/ DVD in the main cabin. Above deck, the cockpit is arranged with a horseshoe lounge opposite the helm and a foldaway seat aft. Note that the single helm seat precludes the mate from joining the skipper. Offered with inboard or sterndrive power, Volvo 420hp Duoprop I/Os cruise at a fast 28–30 knots.
