Overview

1975 Hatteras 58 Motor Yacht

Price Reduced $30,000+

Owner Says SELL!!!

Truly a MUST SEE For the Classic Boat Buyer

“Summer Nights II” is a true classic in every sense of the word. “Summer Nights II” does have its original interior wood giving it a very warm and nautical feel of days gone by.

Summer Nights II is currently in need of repairs, restoration work and upgrades, but is priced competitively as to allow her next buyer to invest in the repair work and retain a marketable value.

NOTE: Photos shown #1 - #100 were taken in 2010 and does not reflect current condition. Photos #102 - #143 have been taken recently.

This 1975 Hatteras Motor Yacht with all glass construction was built as a true ocean going vessel. The port engine was rebuilt in 2006 and a new genset installed in 2006. The engine room will need a good sorting out to make things ship-shape.

The salon area still remains in its true classic Hatteras state and gives that feeling of old school yacht comfort.

The galley was upgraded in 2010 (different layout then indicated in the line drawing in photos). To Starboard is a large counter area with stainless sink and dishwasher. On the port side is the stainless stove/oven with a microwave oven and side by side refrigerator with more counter/prep area. There is plenty of stowage for provisions to last an extended cruise.

Going forward from the galley you will find a forward double bunk room with a large ensuite head and plenty of storage, hanging lockers and a small settee.

Going aft from the salon, as you go down a set of stairs there is a laundry closet to port with a washer/dryer. Aft of the laundry closet, there is a cabin with 2 single berths, stowage and a hanging locker. Across the companionway, you will find a full head with stall shower and lots of storage space.

As you go aft of the cabin you will enter the master suite. The master features a large queen size berth, lots of drawer space and a large hanging locker.

“Summer Nights II” is a dynamic opportunity for a buyer who is looking to invest in and restore this classic 1975 Hatteras Tri-Cabin
