Accommodations

Her saloon has an open galley to Port forward. Two L-shaped settees are focused on a built-in 32-inch flat-panel TV and the galley countertop. The passageway forward leads first to a guest cabin which has upper and lower berths and a deep cedar-lined hanging locker. Nest is a day head. The master cabin is all the way forward and has an island queen, two cedar-lined hanging lockers and a private head with a spacious shower.

The cockpit features a transom door, two in-sole fish boxes, a bait prep area with a sink and a transom live-well with a viewing port. A freezer is hidden in a cabinet to the starboard side of the engine room entrance. To port is the bait prep center with sink and storage underneath. Both salt and fresh water outlets are located on the port side. New combing pads have recently been fitted.

The flybridge is arranged with pedestal-style helm and companion seat that face a super-sized console that easily accommodates two large Raymarine electronics displays and an assortment of other goodies. Bench-style seating is forward, adjacent to the console as well as an insulated drink box. Gracie Jane is also fitted with a Direct TV antenna.

Engine Room & Mechanical Equipment

The engine room is accessed directly from the cockpit. It is well engineered, super clean and very serviceable. A full size adult can get around the front and sides of engines easily. There are massive storage compartments forward of the engines and tons of extra room for adding custom equipment if desired. A molded bilge liner has a nonslip sole and the overhead is finished in high gloss. Stringers are capped with polished stainless steel foundations and there is a built-in storage area for tools and spare parts.

The generator is located beneath the cockpit, which makes sense from a performance standpoint.

Generator noise and vibration are also isolated from the accommodations. The generator access hatch has positive latches, gutters and a neoprene gasket.
