SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

This is a special yacht! So much is new and redone on this Hatteras convertible that you could truthfully say that, (as in Real Estate), Her "effective age" is something like 2016! Everywhere you look something is shiny and new, from the jewel like stainless steel anchor chain, to the underwater lights, the new electronics and the recently rebuilt motors, as well as the updated head and galley, new generator and air conditioners, the list just goes on and on! An incredible amount of intelligently spent money has been lavished on "Paint the Seas" and she represents a terrific value for the discerning buyer who wants a boat that has been modernized and updated, "Paint the Seas" is a must see!

Accommodations

Generous V-berth stateroom forward with its own TV connected to the KVH Satellite TV, plenty of storage drawers and hanging locker space. Out in the hallway (all floors on this level are upgraded to wooden floors) to starboard, is the spacious head with stall shower, completely redone with granite counter top and beautiful hammered copper sink as well as a new electric head. This head can be accessed from both the master stateroom and the hallway. The master, aft to starboard, features a Queen size berth, hanging locker, plenty of drawers and a storage bench. This stateroom also has its own TV. To port is the large galley with a new granite counter top and newer (2015) refrigerator and microwave. The galley, like the rest of this fine vessel, looks like that of a much newer boat. Up 3 steps to the spacious salon with L shaped sectional couch to starboard, and forward under the windshield on the shelf a new 55" Samsung curved screen TV. To port aft is a nifty leather wall saver recliner with a remote control for reclining. Out the door to the oversize fishing cockpit and a special feature there, taking a cue from the mezzanine seating found on newer sport fishermen, there is a custom built fiberglass mezzanine/bench seat for 2.
