SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

This 2010 50 Sea Ray Sundancer is a well-appointed, well-optioned vessel perfect for local cruising or long distance travel. This boat is powered with Cummins Zeus drives making this boat as easy to run and maneuver as you could ever hope for in a 50 foot package. This boat stands out in particular for the music enthusiast as it offers a custom stereo system throughout the boat valued at $160K. Kicker speaker systems run from the bow to the cockpit, with 5 separate 15" Subwoofers mounted in the boat. Hydraulic swim platform with a semi-rigid tender on the back finish off this ultimate entertaining package.

DETAILED INFORMATION

Vessel Walk Through

Boarding at the swim platform, you will see a large, hydraulic swim platform complete with tender chocks for launching and recovering a tender or jetski. The transom storage space has been outfitted with a custom subwoofer box with (4) 15" subwoofers installed. Easily accessed in the same space is a glendenning cable master, dock water connection and cable hookup. Entering the cockpit from the port side transom gate, you will see a Magma grill mounted in the gunwale, and U-shaped seating to starboard. Immediately forward is a small bar/prep area with a sink, ice maker and cabinet storage. Stepping up into the helm area, there is a comfortable lounge seating to port, with a double wide helm pod to starboard. The helm seating swivels aft to create useable entertaining space when you are not underway. Directly behind the helm seating is a 5th 15" subwoofer speaker. Overhead, there is a full complement of high, and mid-range (12 total) Kicker Marine outdoor speakers mounted facing aft. The hardtop also features dual skylights over the helm area for natural lighting. The helm has dual Raymarine MFDs mounted behind the steering wheel, with an updated Mercruiser engine display screen above. The Zeus pod joystick is easily reached from the starboard helm seat to make maneuvering the vessel easy and simple. Entering the cabin area from the helm sliding door, you will step down floating teak steps into the main salon. The interior is adorned with dark cherry interior throughout. The salon dinette area is immediately to starboard with the galley set on the port side. The master bedroom is forward with a queen size island berth centerline on the boat and an en-suite head to port. Moving aft from the entry stairs, the guest stateroom features two twin beds midship with another en-suite head to port. The bow area provides the finishing touch to a wonderful entertaining platform with a large deck sunpad and four additional Kicker Marine speakers.
