Brokers Remarks

It is extremely rare to find a “ one owner vessel” after 15 years of ownership, but that is the case with BELLA VITA. She has spent the majority of time at Ocean Reef and has been lavished with the very best of care since day one! Now offered for sale because owners are anxious to move up in size. BELLA VITA should be on your short list if considering a manageable - owner operator vessel with no deferred maintenance concerns. A pleasure to show, priced realistically - IMPRESSIVE throughout!!

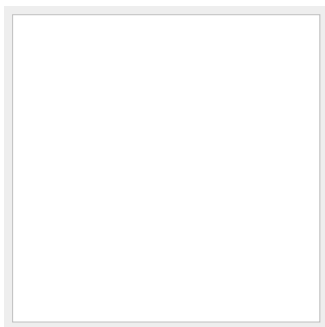

Exclusions

Owner's personal belongings.
