This Pearson 36 Cutter is truly a "broad shouldered" sailing yacht.

Accommodations

The main salon is a unique combination of workability and uncluttered comfort. You can cook, navigate or socialize without tripping over anybody. The foldaway drop-leaf table conceals some neat shelves while outboard port and starboard there is more stowage than needed by even the most dedicated long distance cruiser. The wine locker is on the starboard bulkhead. The head has a separate stand-up shower stall. There is also a handsome mirrored vanity with built-in laundry hamper and again ample stowage. The Navigation station is a no-nonsense chart table/desk, with room to spread out. There is a two position swing-out seat and lots of space for instrumentation. There is a lot of headroom and an expanse of varnished mahogany trimmed with ash. Settees are deep and long and the one to Starboard can be converted to a double the port to a single. The owner's stateroom is as comfortable as it is private. Keeping it shipshape is easy when there are built-in bureaus and lockers and outboard shelves for stowage. The V-Berth filler stows conveniently overhead. The Hanging locker is cedar lined. The boat is fully air conditioned with a Domitec 16,000 BTU reverse cycle. She is ready for extended cruising.

Galley

The U-shaped galley is great for the galley gourmet.
