SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

Billfish is a 2009 37' Ocean Yachts BF yacht for sale in Costa Rica. As you step aboard this incredible boat, you will understand why this model is so popular to all aspects of boating. The cockpit is well designed for a battle-ready rig. However, as you look into the cockpit you will notice she has clean lines and ample accommodations. As you step up into the lower helm area you are greeted with a large dinette with U-Shaped seating to port and additional seating to starboard. The lower helm area has a clear enclosure to aft. At the lower helm, you will find it well equipped with redundant electronics so navigating from station to station is with ease. As you step down into the cabin, you will find a large galley to starboard, large head to port with a stall shower, the forward stateroom is equipped with upper and lower adjacent bunks. The upper helm is well designed with a walk around console, bench seating to port and starboard, while she also has the traditional forward seat in front of the helm.
