Description

As you approach this stunning yacht you really appreciate her classic lines. Harvey Holvorsen did it right.

From the cover flybridge, with its full instrumentation, dual helm chairs, lounges and center table that overlooks the spacious aft deck - with the walk thru transom to the swim platform, along the easy to maneuver teak side decks with high sideboards with rails to the bow pulpit with the heavy-duty electric windlass this boat screams safety, roominess and comfort.

The two-helms: fully instrumented flybridge and main salon allows the vessel to be driven in most weather conditions. The twin Ford Lehman 150 Turbos deliver the power needed to cruise at steady speed of 9 knots.

The aft deck creates a spacious relaxing place while watching the sunsets and sharing drinks with friends and family. The flybridge delivers a large lounge area for passengers and crew while the captain is driving.

The interior helm is located as you enter the main salon thru the side door. The large windshields provide excellent visibility. The beautiful settee, across from the helm, allows six people to enjoy meal time. Behind the helm is a lounge, adding additional seating.

The "L" shape galley which consist of a three-burner propane stove/oven; you'll be cooking with gas - full refrigerator with freezer, that operates with AC/DC electrical power, Double sinks and plenty of storage.

Heading forward and down a set of stairs the forward head with shower is located to starboard and the first cabin with a 72" single berth is to port. Continuing down the passageway is the V- berth. All the cabins have an abundance of storage.

The engine room has an access door in the head and the floor panels in the main salon remove for quick and easy access to the engine compartment.

Moving aft, up and across the salon, is the staircase to the master suite. This suite has the queen-size centerline berth with night tables on each side and loads of drawers and hanging storage on both sides.

The ensuite head is a nice size and the separate shower stall delivers a level of luxury

Broker Notes

This is a must-see boat if you are looking for the trawler to live aboard or to travel. It's been very well maintained and is very spacious also the storage space on board is extraordinary.
