Overview

The name Mako speaks for itself. Mako has been building reliable and practical boats since the company's heyday in the 1970s. Once the most popular center console, it was once hard to find a marina that didn't have a Mako around. The Mako 28 has a comfortable ride, plenty of power with its 225 horsepower Honda outboards, a spacious seating area in the bow and roomy cockpit for fighting fish. This is also a perfect boat for weekend excursions with the family. This boat has been very well maintained by its owner, is clean and ready for its next owner.
