Overview

Pirates Lady is a Gaff-Rigged Trade Rover Schooner designed by Merrit Walters. She is a 72ft steel hull Coast Guard inspected vessel used for chartering up to 30 guests. Pirates Lady's home port is Marathon, Florida. She is a Trade Rover design carrying passengers on evening sunset sails from her dock and during the summer months she plies the boy scout trade, sailing from the BSA Florida Sea Base High Adventures Sea Exploring program. Built in 1984, she was owned by the Coastal Ecology Learning Program, a non-profit educational corporation providing ship-board marine environmental education programs to the students of the area as well as sail training. She is currently located in Deltaville Virginia and is looking for a owner! Whether you want a live aboard, have a big family, or want to start a guaranteed turnkey business, this vessel will turn heads on the water!
