Walkthrough

As you step inside the salon, you're surrounded by a warmth of cherry cabinetry and woodwork. A sweep of windows frames a panoramic view. Lounge seating and an adjacent table allow socializing and relaxed conversation the richly finished camphor table adjusts both vertically and horizontally for dining and onboard entertaining. A 42" plasma TV anchors a premium home theater system with surround sound, and a fully equipped wet bar completes an elegant seagoing environment. The pilothouse deck arrangement enables the entire family to enjoy the cruise together. A fully equipped galley allows efficient food preparation, and at the adjacent informal dinette, the table converts to accommodate family meals or casual refreshments. Passengers and captain alike view the passing scenery through an uninterrupted sweep of windows, and the helm station features a full complement of electronics for precise, effortless navigation. Port and starboard doors allow quick access to the foredeck sunpad. Accommodations aboard Alii provide exceptional privacy and comfort for owner, family, and guests. Three staterooms each include flat screen TV, stereo, hanging locker, drawer storage, and an ensuite head. The owner's stateroom adds a desk, built-in dresser, and dual walk-in wardrobes. Alii's quiet operation assures everyone a good night's sleep. Alii's aft deck is equally inviting and versatile. An upholstered lounge offers stretch out comfort and rises to allow convenient access to mechanical spaces and crew quarters aft. Molded in steps lead to a broad swim platform that is complete with storage compartments, boarding ladder, and a hot/cold fresh water shower for swimmers and divers. Topside the convenience of an enclosed helm, lounge with table, barbecue, and refrigerator all adds up to unsurpassed comfort, convenience, and enjoyment. Alii's tender is cradled just aft of the enclosed flybridge on the boat deck.
