Vessel Walkthrough

---

The fully enclosed and air conditioned helm deck can be accessed from either side of the deck by wing doors or from the swim platform via a molded stairwell. There is a comfort bench seat aft and on the port side. On the starboard side is a wet bar with an ice maker and the well appointed helm with bench seating. This area is protected by a hard top, tempered glass windows with a power vent, wing doors and Isenglass aft. The entry to the comfortable and beautifully decorated salon is to port and down a few steps. You have the curved Ultra-leather settles on both sides of the salon. There is also an oval hi/low table with a pair of ottoman stools to form a dinette. The entertainment center is next to the stairs with a flat screen TV and stereo system. The large windows allow for lots of natural light and visibility. Moving forward and down a couple of steps you find the well equipped galley to starboard. Forward is the guest stateroom with a berth on each side with one capable of sliding out to form a double. The guest head has a separate stall shower and dual access from either the stateroom or galley. The full beam master stateroom is aft and has an Island queen berth and lots of storage. There are cabinets and a large mirror to port and a vanity with sink on the starboard side. On each side of the vanity are a separated shower stall and head compartment. The interior is nicely decorated in a high gloss cherry finish and rich, neutral earth tones. There are large windows and a skylight over the galley that provides plenty of natural light.
