Overview

Starting from the aft deck, the 810 Ferretti includes open air dining for 6 to 8 people. The ability to open the salon glass partition allows the interior salon guests to interact easily with those on the aft deck. A spacious salon, configured in a U, allows for comfortable seating for 8 to 10 and easy conversation. A pop-up flatscreen television comes up on the starboard side. Further forward is fine dining for 6. Up front to starboard is the complete lower control station with complete electronics. To port in this pilothouse is seating for 4 at a table with excellent views forward. Down the forward stairs, the 81 Ferretti sleeps 9 owners and guests in 4 staterooms (the port guest stateroom can sleep 3 when using the Pullman bunk). Each stateroom has its own head with the starboard guest stateroom head serving as the day head. Separate crew quarters accessed from the aft deck and swim platform will sleep 3-4 crew. The flybridge can be accessed from both the aft deck stairs and a midship interior staircase. The flybridge seating includes a dining table for 6 in a u-shape configuration. Behind the upper helm is a barbecue for open air cooking celebrations.

DETAILED INFORMATION

Walk Through

Boarding at the aft deck immediately impresses guests that this is the nicest open deck of any yacht this size! Beautiful Italian stainless and glass divide this area from the salon. The aft doors open to integrate the aft deck into the salon. Direct crew and engine room access are from this area. There is a large euro platform with a wave runner garage very cleverly located inside. This vessel has a warm and inviting ambiance about her. She is elegant, yet less pretentious than her larger siblings. She is sporty for a 4 stateroom, 81' yacht, with speed up to 33 knots. Her roominess lends to the utilization of the interior. The interior fabrics range from silks to ultra suede in the staterooms with bright high gloss cherry woods and soft leather. The color scheme in the interior is subtle earth tones. The new hardwood flooring is stunning and very low maintenance. The hardwood is carried throughout the upper level and crew areas. Cool beige leather accents result in a relaxing atmosphere. Below decks, high-quality cream patterned carpets welcome you to your staterooms. The beautiful lacquered cherry woodwork with maple inlays is stunning throughout the yacht. There are four guest staterooms located on the lower deck plus crew accommodations for four. There is a VIP forward with a centerline queen berth. This stateroom has a roomy ensuite head. The entertainment center includes a flat screen TV with DVD and satellite receiver. The two twin staterooms are located amidship just aft of the VIP. The port twin has a third Pullman berth for an extra guest or child. Both guests staterooms have 17" flat screen TVs, DVDs, Pioneer sound systems. Each the guest staterooms have an ensuite head. Aft is the full beam master stateroom. It has an oversized queen bed, vanities, ample storage and a built-in leather sofa. The master has a large flat screen TV with DVD, DSS satellite receiver and stereo system. The ensuite head is large and very elegant. Large windows in the hull give the room lots of natural light. CREW QUARTERS Under the aft deck are comfortable accommodations for up to 4 crew in 2 separate cabins. The captain's cabin has a nice sized double bed. The crew head has a full sized shower. The second crew cabin has 2 bunks. This area has air conditioning, laundry, television and ample storage for the crew's gear. The access to the engine room is through the crew quarters or can be accessed through an aft deck hatch. In this 810 you have 3 great dining areas. The formal dining area forward, in the salon, is just opposite the galley. The fixed teak table can seat eight for an elegant meal. Eight guests can also dine al fresco and out of the sun on the aft deck. The aft deck has a wet bar and elegant varnished table. The aft deck also has a U-Line ice maker, refrigerator and a flat screen TV. The third place to enjoy a meal or beverages in on the flybridge. There is a sunny settee for dining with a 360 degree view. THE SALON has a warm hi gloss cherry wood. Soft ultra suede accents the high ceiling. The spacious U-shaped sofa to port is cream colored leather accentuated with custom throws and pillows. To starboard, across from the sofa, the 42" LCD flat screen TV is on a custom lift allowing for unobstructed views when not in use. A BOSE surround sound receiver, CD, DVD, and KVH G5 DSS satellite receiver have been installed for entertainment pleasure. There is a PC computer with extensive media and movies to all TVs throughout the yacht.

GALLEY Located across from the formal dining area is an enclosed galley. Double stainless sinks, earth granite countertops accent the galley. High gloss cherry cabinetry and large windows that open, make this a bright and comfortable work area for any owner or chef.

AFT DECK Aside from the dining area, the aft deck offers the captain and owners a wing/helm station to starboard. The flybridge is easily accessible up the aft staircase. The crew, laundry, and the engine area can be accessed by a crew entry aft of the settee. Stairs lead down port and starboard to the ample swim platform. The owner installed seven custom underwater lights. These lights dramatically enhance an evening on the aft deck.
