Overview

PRELIMINARY LISTING!

65' Paul Mann "Exile" was originally built as the "Phat Mann" by the premier North Carolina custom sportfish builder Paul Mann. The builder and owner's main focus was finish, quality and performance with great attention to detail, and their goal was to build the finest Paul Mann boat in existence. She was finished at the highest level of craftsmanship making her an exceptional example of what a true custom Carolina sportfish is all about.

Unbelievable attention was given by the builder and experienced owner during the entire construction process of this vessel. This phenomenal fishing machine has been maintained to the highest standard by all three owners. 65' Paul Mann "Exile" was built to travel with excellent range, a massive well-laid-out interior, mezzanine seating, and dependable Caterpillar power. Her quality and top-tier engineering are evident the minute you step aboard, even before experiencing the legendary ride and performance.

This vessel is a proven tournament winner with a stellar unblemished history. She is pristine in condition and a pleasure to show. Her luxurious interior and traditional Carolina style is accentuated by her economical fantastic ride and makes her a must see for any buyer looking for a ready-to-fish professionally maintained vessel. Exile 65 is priced below market, and she is ready for her next owner and family to enjoy. Her owner will consider all reasonable offers.

"Exile" is pristine with continuous updates and has always been maintained with an open check book. She is ready to continue her tradition of winning tournaments and making memories with family and friends.
