Overview

Inspired by the laid back chic of the idyllic island of St.Barths Envisioned in a soothing palette of neutrals, this tranquil decor embraces the streamlined modernism of the Sanlorenzo yacht. The contemporary lines of the yacht have been lightened with textural natural materials and an organic sensibility in the edited, refined signature style of the designer as evidenced in the unique interplay of illusions creating an interesting drama as one moves thru the yacht. Exotic, tactile materials such as textured oak and laser cut leathers are contrasted with the sleekness and reflective properties of glossy lacquers against matte stainless-steel trim work. The center circular staircase is a sculptural element inspired by the spiral geometry found in the Fibonacci sequence. The staircase is clad with stacked stones to invoke the natural, rocky coast line. The 112 Sanlorenzo is a richly serene decor defined by natural elements and a light filled palette where the simplicity of the sea was the inspiration with minimalistic furniture shapes paired with calm modern colors and textured linens.
