Manufacturer Description

From the hull through to the stringer system, the 2200VX is reinforced with Kevlar to be tough, with an exceptionally smooth ride. It's also remarkably versatile. With the largest fuel capacity in its class you can venture out further, and with the convenience and comforts of a forward cabin, you can stay out longer. Take the helm. You'll notice the unobstructed cockpit opens out to an oversized fish box and livewell, built-in tackle drawers and loads of storage for rods, dive gear or anything else you bring along for the ride.

Exclusions

Owner's personal belongings.
