Overview

In retrospect, it's easy to see why the Horizon PC60 was a "game changer" in the powercat market; after all, this model brought together the most alluring elements of a catamaran - the massive interior volume, fuel efficiency, and natural stability - and combined it with the most desirable aspects of a monohull yacht. You'll see that in the PC60's huge on-deck master suite; three sizeable guest cabins; and its megayacht-like fit & finish. Need an Exhibit A? You'll find it in "Sundance", a 2017 model, which is far-and-away the nicest PC60 on the market.

"Sundance" has been exceptionally maintained by a real by-the-book type of owner. She's also never chartered - which is not to say she wouldn't be a home run on the charter market. People love chartering powercats, and none more so than the PC60. The yacht was delivered with every option and an additional $130,000 in upgrades upon delivery- a particularly impressive figure, given that the base model comes "fully-loaded" by virtually any other builder's standards. With "Sundance" you have the option of retaining her fourth stateroom - just perfect for the owner/operator - or easily converting it to a two-berth crew cabin.

And options are what "Sundance" is all about - both the many options she was built with, and, perhaps more importantly, the variety of cruising options that this pristine PC60 will make possible.

Vessel Walk through:

Boarding the immense teak aft deck from port or starboard boarding doors you will immediately notice the large aft deck table with seating for 8, with an additional lounge overlooking the stern. As you continue walking forward you find the on-deck owners' stateroom.

Three stairs down from the main salon, the starboard hull features the Queen VIP forward and optional crew quarters aft, this stateroom has a filler cushion to create one large bed. The third guest stateroom is reached via a staircase into the port hull, with twin beds and en-suite head.
