Broker's Comments:

This boat is a rare find and unique among other similar Irwin 43 boats. The owners purchased this boat with the intention of retirement and extended cruising both in the Great Lakes and the Caribbean. The professional refit was extensive and the boat is ready to go anywhere.

The photos and videos speak to the attention to detail and quality of the refit. The interior is light and airy with new ports and glass which is crystal clear. The leather upholstery is custom and imported from Scotland.

Energy management for long distance cruising and a desalination system make exotic ports a possibility.

Salon

The main salon has an L shaped settee with custom teak drop-leaf table to port and a settee to starboard. There is a large amount of storage space behind and beneath the port and starboard settees. Four lockers (all enclosed with louvered doors) are located above and behind the settees. At the aft end of the port settee is an end table with built-in liquor locker and TV. At the forward end of the starboard settee, there is a counter with a top opening locker. There is an opening port forward on the centerline and the seat cushions are all imported leather over thick custom foam.

A large number of cabin lights are provided so that each bunk and settee has a surplus of available illumination. All ceiling lights were replaced when the headliner was replaced in 2007.

Teak overhead handrails.

Forward Guest Cabin and Head

The V-berth with insert to convert to a large sleeping area. There is storage under the berth in six lockers, and a large hanging locker. The V-berth is finished in varnished teak, and a shelf runs fore and aft on both port and starboard sides. The cabin is well ventilated with two opening stainless steel ports and a large Lewmar hatch overhead. There are two doors, one a private door leading to the forward head and the other one to the main salon. The forward head is fitted with a vanity with a Corian sink and counter top, head, several lockers, and a separate stall shower with teak grate. The head has an opening stainless steel port and new overhead Lewmar hatch.

Owners Cabin and Head

The aft owner's stateroom is large, light, airy and very comfortable. On the centerline there is a queen size bed, with access from both sides. Above the head of the berth there is an opening port and wide shelf running athwartship. There are shelves, drawers, lockers and opening ports both port and starboard of the berth, and drawers at the foot of the bed. On the port side there is a substantial hanging locker. There are two overhead Lewmar hatches on the centerline, the aft one being over the bed and large enough to provide alternate egress in case of emergency. Opposite the foot of the bed is a vanity with large mirror and swing out swiveling seat. The ensuite aft head has a Corian sink and counter top. The a stall shower with teak grating drains to a dedicated sump and overboard pump. There are also two opening side ports.

Galley

The galley, located aft of the main salon to starboard, has excellent counter space, a stainless steel sink, a three burner propane stove with oven and a microwave oven. There is a vertical large refrigerator with separate freezer as well as a separate chest type deep freeze with SeaFrost cold plates and compressor. There are several lockers and four drawers for an abundant stowage of food, silver, and crockery within easy reach of the chef. In addition to the hot and cold pressurized water system there is a foot operated sea water pump.

The oven and stove are supplied by 2 10lb LPG tanks controlled by an electric LPG valve.

Electronics

Moving aft from the main cabin on the port side, is the navigation station it is complete with two large hinged desk tops with stowage under. The electrical panel is located at the forward end of the station. There is an Icon VHF Marine Transceiver and a remote autopilot control. There is also an opening port and ample bookshelf space above. At the aft end there is a good sized hanging locker.

At the helm is a Raytheon E-80 Chartplotter, Raymarine AutoPilot, Raytheon 24 Mile RADAR, wind speed, depth, speed ST-60+ instruments all mounted in navpod housings.
