SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

JAMMER IV, an impressive Azimut 45 Flybridge, is seriously for sale and ready for her new owners to take over and experience all the boating lifestyle has to offer. As a 3-stateroom boat she's capable of hosting friends and family for extended trips - and as a day boat she truly shines with a layout purely designed around social interaction and relaxation. From the cockpit and its molded seating, to the salon with a hi-low table and generous seating for 7-8, the deck level layout flows nicely. For those wishing to soak up the sun, the large bow-pad offers a great place to convene, while the fly bridge has yet another opportunity to gather and enjoy the fresh air. All this is wrapped in the unmistakable sleek Azimut profile. JAMMER IV is seriously for sale, and the owner is actively seeking respectable offers. She's in great condition, fully serviced, well-maintained and ready to go! Call today for an appointment to get on board.

DETAILED INFORMATION

Overview

JAMMER IV is a prime example of everything the popular Azimut 45 has to offer. Combining three staterooms in a concise, beautifully designed boat, with aesthetics second to none, this flybridge motor yacht is the perfect weekender, yet capable of longer term cruising for the adventurous couple or the whole family. She's been well looked after since new by a knowledgeable owner, in ha been recently detailed. With all services up to date and in good working order, she is in turn-key condition. The hydraulic platform with included AB tender and Mercury 4-stroke outboard round out a very clean, complete package.

Vessel Walkthrough

Starting aft, the hydraulic lift platform holds an 11' tender with outboard. Through the port side transom door, you enter the cockpit with a stow-away table and molded seating for 3-4 people. There is room for additional deck chairs as well. Up the molded steps to the flybridge you are greeted with an expansive space given her LOA. A large sunpad sits across from the helm, while aft there is a large, C-shaped settee with a large table and built-in grill and refrigerator. Below deck, from the cockpit through a large stainless sliding door you enter the salon, which is spacious and well-laid out for guests. To starboard there is a large C-shaped settee with hi-low table while to port there is a small bench seat and the flat screen TV. Up two steps to the lower helm, you have a full array of electronics in a very ergonomically designed helm station with excellent visibility all around. Down and to port sits the fully equipped galley. With the openness above the space seems immense as it follows along the port side of the boat. Well lit from the overhead windows, and open to the salon - it's a wonderful design that allows the chef to still be "part of the party" JAMMER IV offers a 3 stateroom layout, with the master aft to starboard. A nice island queen, with en-suite head and shower provide a comfortable sleeping space for the owners. Moving forward to port is the over under bunk room, sporting a large hanging locker, flat screen TV and opening port. Across from the bunk room sits the day head, which also can act as an en-suite head to the VIP stateroom forward. In the VIP, a large centerline queen offers a good nights sleep, while two large hanging lockers and additional drawers provide plenty of storage for the longer trips. Overall, she's a very comfortable, capable platform for a number of different uses on the water. Offering a nice combination of space, efficiency, speed, style and ability, the Azimut 45 won't disappoint, and neither will JAMMER IV! Call to make your appointment for a showing today.
