Overview

Situated in the heart of the surprisingly beautiful countryside that is the Maremma region and the Tuscan Archipelago, just a few miles away from Elba Island, Marina di Scarlino is one of the safest and best protected ports in the Mediterranean.

The wide and deep Follonica Gulf combined with the nearby hills and natural parks that surround the Marina all contribute to creating a mild microclimate and both sea and wind conditions that are ideal in every season: a paradise for sailors with many beautiful destinations that are close at hand: from marine protected areas to pristine bays and beaches like the nearby Cala Violina. For anyone who wants to enjoy a piece of Tuscany that is authentic and a joy to discover with food, wines, cultural and archaeological sites, art and stunning landscapes.

The Marina has 580 berths for boats from 10 to 36 mt, and up to 4 mt draft.

The Marina's guests can enjoy a wide variety of services that go far beyond nautical services to include apartments and hotel rooms, shops, bars, restaurant, a beauty centre, beach and pool clubs and can participate or spectate recreational and sporting events.
