Manufacturer Provided Description

The 370 Outrage provides ample room for fighting fish or entertaining guests. The standard leaning post is well equipped for all of your boating activities with a large livewell, tackle storage, refrigerator/freezer, freshwater sink and grill. An optional Summer Kitchen leaning post provides even more entertaining options by replacing the livewell with an additional refrigerator and electric stove top. The ergonomically-correct center helm layout provides easy access to controls and includes a fold down helm standing platform and electrically adjustable captain's seat for maximum comfort and the integrated hardtop/windshield system that provides improved visibility and weather protection. The comfortable console forward lounge lifts to reveal lockable storage for rods, dive gear and carry on items. Down below, the well appointed cabin features a true two person berth/settee and other amenities that make it unique in its class.

Exclusions

Owner's personal belongings.
