Overview

---

One of Sabre's best-selling yachts, the Sabre 42 Salon Express combines classic Downeast styling with state-of-the-art composite construction. Sabre was one of the first Downeast builders to take advantage of efficient Cummins Zeus pod drive technology—a feature that has much to do with the enduring popularity of this yacht. With her large cockpit, enclosed pilothouse/salon, and spacious two-stateroom layout, the 42 Salon is the consummate cruising and entertaining yacht.

- Twin 380hp Cummins diesels (350 hours) with Zeus pod drives cruise at 24 knots.
- Boat house moored on fresh water
- Joy stick control
- Classic Down East styling
- Immaculate condition

DETAILED INFORMATION

Accommodations

---

The airy salon includes an L-shaped settee with inlaid table, side-by-side Stidd helm and companion seats, dinette, and a step-down galley open to the salon. The opening door at the helm is a nice touch.

Forward of the galley is a full head/shower to port. and a convertible dinette to starboard and a gorgeous master stateroom forward.

Salon/ Galley

The entire salon has excellent natural lighting though out from large windows offering 360 degree visibility. Whether sitting at the L-settee, love seat, or the one of the two Stidd helm seats, everyone on board can enjoy the view. To starboard aft of the helm chairs is a love seat and narrow end table that features a Hi/Lo television that rises or vanishes at the touch of a button. Her mid-galley to port offers the best of both worlds: still part of the social activities in the salon yet out of the way. This location gives the cook the advantage of extra storage space beneath the galley sole while staying in full view of the scene outside. No more debate about galley down or galley up with this layout as it offers the best of both.
