Cockpit and Deck Layout

Beginning at the stern there is a huge double swim platform with non-skid faux-teak and a hot/cold shower. Entering the aft deck there is a settee to starboard with seating for six that also converts to a fourth double berth. To port is a locker with a new ice-maker. Moving forward to the cockpit we have the helm station with seating for two which is starboard with another seating area for two to port.

Easy access to the foredeck through the center walk-through. The oversized deck area is highlighted by a double sun bed.

Accommodations

Beginning forward, there is a queen size V-berth in the private cabin with plenty of storage and an HD flat-screen TV. The head is aft to port, with an electric head and a completely enclosed shower. The main cabin has an L-shaped settee to starboard with a dinette table that can be lowered to create a second double berth. The galley is to port with a full-size refrigerator/freezer, a microwave and a 2-burner electric stove. Aft of the main cabin is a second L-shaped settee and table that also converts to a third double berth with privacy curtains. These exceptionally roomy accommodations are cooled by a central AC unit that is easily powered by a Kohler 6KW generator located near the stern in the engine room.

Electronics and Entertainment

Garmin EchoMap 94 SV multifunction display with plotter, GPS and depth.

ICOM IC-M24G VHF w/ GPS and DSC and remote mic and speaker at helm.

2 flat screen TVs - one in the main cabin, one in the forward stateroom
