Overview

Considered a "performance trawler," the Mainship 390 rides on a semi-displacement hull capable of higher cruising speeds than full displacement trawlers. The 390 is a super choice for doing The Great Loop or coastal cruising, with its easy access through the transom gate into the aft deck, molded steps ascending from there to the large flybridge, and full walk-around decks from aft to bow. And with the high bulwarks, and you have a pet-friendly design for those who bring fur-kids along.

DETAILED INFORMATION

MAIN DESCRIPTION

Considered a "performance trawler," the Mainship 390 rides on a semi-displacement hull capable of higher cruising speeds than full displacement trawlers. The 390 is a super choice for doing The Great Loop or coastal cruising, with its easy access through the transom gate into the aft deck, molded steps ascending from there to the large flybridge, and full walk-around decks from aft to bow. And with the high bulwarks, and you have a pet-friendly design for those who bring fur-kids along. Stepping inside through the sliding door from the covered aft deck, large wraparound windows provide lots of natural lighting in the salon and excellent visibility from the lower helm. Two comfy recliners are starboard in the salon, and an L-shaped galley is forward to port. The teak and holly salon sole is an attractive feature, accented by carpet in the cabins for a quieter sleep in the island queen berth and two single guest berths.
