Overview

Grady White, the most reliable name in boating, built this wave crushing monster for serious fishermen and their families. The 283 Release has a massive amount of cockpit space as well as large vee seating in the bow. A large comfortable head located in the center console is both easy to use and easy to get in and out. A full rigging station behind the helm seat is complete with live well, tackle storage, and a sink.. The transom is filled with amenities, too. It has an insulated fish box, folding bench seat, and a transom door to the swim ladder. The 283 is fitted with rod storage and rod holders throughout and a pair of Taco outriggers. This 283 has been indoor stored and well maintained. If you have always wanted a big Grady White this is your chance!
