Manufacturer Provided Description

Hunter Marine is pleased to announce the latest addition to its collection - The Hunter 306. The 306 proves that you can have a comfortable family cruiser in a model less than 30 feet in length. A 10'9" beam boasts a spacious salon, as well as two private staterooms, one forward and one aft, a large head, a full-size galley, and even a nav station for charting your course! Eight opening hatches and ports provide plenty of light and the headroom is fantastic. The large beam also gives the captain and crew plenty of room in the cockpit. Deep, angled coamings make any passage a safe and comfortable one. The cockpit table with folding leaves makes entertaining easy. Two integral stern rail seats give your guests the best seats in the house!
