Overview

New to the market!

Perhaps one of Tartan's most popular designs, Esprit III is a great example of the 37 model. Designed by Sparkman and Stephens this racer/cruiser was derived from the Tartan 38. Esprit III is an original owner boat which has spent it's life cruising Long Island Sound and beyond. This vessel is equipped with a well visible cluster of TackTick gauges winches located on the starboard bulkhead in the cockpit. Self tailing Lewmar #48 and #44 winches can be found in the cockpit as well as a couple of single speed Lewmars mounted on the coachtop. If you're in the market for a Tartan 37, Esprit III is not a boat you'll want to miss!
