Vessel Walkthrough

IMAGINATION is a 64' luxury yacht that has the characteristics of a much larger motor yacht. Accommodations include a full-beam Master and a VIP, each with queen berth, and a third stateroom with twin berths. The crews quarters is located aft, separated from owners and guests with an entrance from the large swim platform. This self-contained space has everything necessary for living and is convenient to the engine room and mechanical space. It is an excellent design for cruising.

Boarding at the swim platform, you notice the sea door to the crews quarters and engine room. Up a few steps is the aft deck which has a ladder access to the fly bridge, a teak table and chairs, and cushioned benches on either side. Dual glass entry doors lead to the salon, furnished on the port side with a very comfortable L-shaped sofa and twin cocktail tables that adjust to desired height and can be extended with a filler for a full dining table. Opposite is a low-profile, cherry wood entertainment center that extends the length of the room and features a 46" LCD TV, audio visual equipment, and plenty of storage. Forward is the galley, open to the salon for a comfortable great room feel, lending to enjoyment of all. U-shaped, it features full size appliances and plenty of storage.

Proceeding forward, a few steps lead to the raised pilot house with a helm of full electronics and breaker panels convenient for monitoring the yacht. Seating includes a central helm chair for the operator and, behind, a large upholstered bench seat, raised with a table. An easily ascended interior staircase leads to the fly bridge and doors on both sides of the pilothouse give access to the fore deck.

Forward on the starboard side, a stair case descends to the staterooms. The Queen full-beam Master with custom, ensuite head is all the way aft, fitted with beautiful Shoji screens that provide ambiance, light, and privacy. The Queen VIP is all the way forward, and the third stateroom with twin berths is central. Each is beautifully furnished with decorator accouterments and is very comfortable.

The flybridge is accessed externally from the aft deck and internally from the pilot house. It has a fully functioning helm, 2 large L-shaped lounges with cocktail tables, a helm chair, BBQ, wet bar, storage lockers, and a boat deck with dinghy and davit. The helm and seating area is covered with a large, custom fiberglass hard top.

Pilothouse

The raised pilothouse, finished in high-gloss cherry, opens to the port and starboard side decks. An elevated, upholstered bench with table provides comfortable seating for three. Interior steps lead to the flybridge.
