SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

Owner wants her sold!! Bring all offers!! Little Dutch is a classic offshore double head-sail ketch bowsprit version cruiser by the famed yacht designer Ted Brewer and is comfortable for cruising or as a live-aboard. She is a spacious center cockpit ketch with a full keel, skeg rudder, balsa cored topsides and solid molded fiberglass below the waterline. As you enter the salon there is a U-shaped galley with Seafronst ice box, new 4-burner propane stove/oven, double sink and storage. Forward of the galley is an L-shaped settee/berth with a drop down dining table. To starboard as you enter the salon there is a Nav station with a drop-down bar/table and bulkhead storage port and starboard. The salon woodwork is very nice and she is equipped with a beautiful teak boxed mast and teak and holly sole. Forward of the salon is a full head and a forward V-berth cabin with all new navy blue cushion covers with white piping. Aft of the Nav station there is a workbench in the passageway to the aft cabin. There is access to the 70-HP Westerbeke diesel from the passageway. The aft cabin is nicely equipped with a large athwartship berth with new navy cushions covers with white piping, lots of storage, adjacent head and access from the cabin directly to the cockpit. See the Full Specs for all the details and give us a call to come see her.
