DETAILED INFORMATION

Overview

Accommodations

Beginning at the bow is a large and comfortable Vee Berth with a dressing seat to the port side of the entrance and a good sized hanging locker on starboard. The forward cabin is made comfortable with a large opening hatch, 12V Fan, 2 reading and one ceiling light.

Next aft is the Saloon with a large, 6-person dining table on port which easily converts to a double berth. There is a large opening hatch, 2 fixed ports, a 12V Fan and both reading and ceiling lights for comfort wetbar dining, entertaining, or "hanging out".

The aft facing Nav Station is at the starboard aft end of the saloon featuring a good sized desk, with 110 and 12 Volt Electric Panels as well as VHF and AM/FM/Cassette Stereo Player. All within easy reach.

Next Aft is the roomy Head with its commode and a sink with a pullout faucet/shower. A fixed port and dorade provide light and ventilation.

Next aft on Starboard is the Aft Cabin Entry with a large and comfortable athwartship berth. There is a large Hanging Locker/Cabinet at the Entry. Again, an opening and fixed port plus an opening hatch keeps the cabin light and airy with help from a 12V fan and a couple of reading lights.

The Companionway is on center with the Engine Compartment under the 4 step up to the Cockpit.

The U-Shaped Galley is across on Port and includes an icebox, trash container, Force 10, 2-Burner Stove with Oven, Microwave, good counter space and lots of storage.

The Cockpit is large enough for Sailing, Entertaining or a lazy afternoon Nap.

This Hunter is the perfect cruiser with everything you need to enjoy an afternoon sail with family and friends or a longer cruise to your favorite gunkhole.
