DETAILED INFORMATION

Overview

---

JENNY LYNNE is a custom US built aluminum yacht designed for cruising inland, coastal, and Bahamian waters. Built as the "Voyager 87" by Marine Builders, Inc. of Utica, IN she has been used as a private yacht among three generations of family since new. She features a very versatile 4 or 5 cabin cabin layout and an open floorplan that works for any occasion. She is very nicely appointed, in excellent mechanical and cosmetic condition and ready immediately for a new owner. She also presents the unique option, if desired, to be easily USCG Certified for 49, making her suitable for the high end corporate charter market.

Accommodations
