Overview

---

Galeon 310 HTC was designed to present a more aggressive profile and features than the leisure oriented flybridge variant. Both yachts share the same interior layout with a notable difference being the presence of an automatic glass roof over the helm station in the HTC. Sleek and nimble, the 310 is sure to please all yacht enthusiasts. On the exterior it clearly resembles other third-generation Galeon yachts with its broad windows and dynamic features. The passengers will surely make use of conveniently planned cockpit which is available with both a fixed bench and fold-out seating that is perfect for sunbathing. An additional sundeck area awaits on the bow.

Galeon 310 HTC

The main deck is occupied by a sizable dinette and an opposite facing galley with the helm station moved forward. The interior finish will be available in several distinct designs including Oak and Walnut, with plenty of customization options at the client's disposal. Select additional equipment and features to create your perfect yacht.

Two cabins with four berths await guests down below along with a bathroom complete with a head and a shower. Both single and twin petrol or diesel engine installations are available, so choose your preferred option and let yourself be amazed by the performance of the new Galeon 310 HTC.

Hardtop line

This nimble hardtop is best suited for a colder and harsher climate. The main living area is protected by glass door dividing the cockpit and can be heated if needed. Open the side windows and sunroof if the weather permits and cruise to your favorite destination.

Highlights

- A dynamic silhouette of the compact hardtop
- Tight corners are no problem for the 310 HTC
- The saloon on the main deck is surrounded by windows brightening the interior
- A compact galley and dinette on the main deck
- Forward owner's cabin offers a double bed
- The bathroom is fitted with a shower and a head

Exclusions

Owner's personal belongings.
