Walkthrough The 480 feels much bigger than its 48 feet. Enter vessel from the air conditioned, enclosed helm area and aft deck to a social platform that is great for entertaining or family cruises. The helm is just forward and very much part of the action aft. Side decks to bow and sun pads are large and safe. Down three steps to a large salon with crescent shaped sofa and love seat opposite. Forward is galley and dinette, head with stall shower, guest stateroom with side by side bunks with filler to make king. The VIP stateroom is forward with walk-around full-size bed. Master is aft full beam with queen sized bed, closets, drawers and storage. A vanity with sink, separate VacuFlush head and separate stall shower.

Salon The salon and the entire interior feature high gloss cherry cabinetry. The salon settees are upholstered in an off-white ultra-leather material. There is a hi/lo table with two stools that nestle under each end. Custom curtains cover the side windows.

Galley Located on the port side it is opposite the dinette. It is open to the salon and it provides a very cheerful atmosphere. The dinette is on the starboard side. There is quite a bit of storage below the seat cushions. Equipment: Refrigerator (2020) Microwave over Kenyon 3-burner glass top range Exhaust removal vent Sink Built-in trash bin Built-in coffee maker

Wood Flooring in Galley

Master Stateroom The master suite is full beam, aft for privacy and impressive in size and amenities. There are ample hanging wardrobes and locker storage. On the starboard side is a separate shower and separate toilet. Entertainment equipment includes flat screen television.

VIP Suite Located forward in the bow is the VIP suite and it is impressive. There is good hanging wardrobe storage and plenty of storage. The center line, easy access, queen berth is very comfortable. Entertainment includes a flat screen television.

Guest Stateroom On the starboard side is a twin berth cabin. There is a center cushion to convert the beds into a double berth.
