DETAILED INFORMATION

Overview

1987 Pacific Sea Craft Dana 24 This little Dana has been cruising Florida and the Bahamas for many seasons. Her owners recently enjoyed a little coastal cruise before putting her up on the hard with plans to sell. She's covered with over sized bronze hardware, and loads of solid teak down below. The Yanmar 2GM20F diesel runs strong, and her sails are in good serviceable condition. There are a few little projects but none are too demanding. She is priced aggressively and will not last long. Don't miss this opportunity to sail one of America's greatest little pocket cruisers. She is truly a little "go anywhere" boat.

Description

Broker's Comments There's something about the traditional design and solid feel of these little boats that take you back in time. They're beautiful to look at. This one has had lots of love over the years but she needs a new owner ready to give her a little make over. Nothing too serious. The bones are there. A little cosmetic work and she could turn heads.

Exclusions

---

Owner's personal belongings.
