Overview

Few center console boats are as capable and iconic as a Yellowfin. As you probably are aware, there is a three year waiting list for a new version of this 39'. Available to you here, is an opportunity to own a late model version of one of these machines while you incur that wait. This 39, although lightly and recreationally enjoyed, has proven to this seller time and time again, she can run offshore quickly and comfortably, and return with her wells overflowing with groceries. Word to the wise, if running fast, fishing hard, posting records, winning tournaments, and creating envy on the docks isn't your particular brand of spirit, this may not be the vessel for you. However, if you do recognize a unique opportunity when one presents itself, pick up your phone right now and call on this recently updated and like new Yellowfin 39.
