The Heritage East Sundeck Trawler has a cult-like following for coastal cruising and as a contender for a Great Loop experience. This boat is capable with its spacious quarters and well appointed amenities to provide nautical comfort for liveaboards, full time cruisers and dock squatters.

This boat offers a fully enclosed fly bridge with a hard top and provides priceless views. The aft deck provides a constant breeze that makes for the perfect beverage destination or outdoor water front dining room. In the main salon ample sun light and open space give you the feeling of being on a larger vessel. The galley has a new full size refrigerator with a dinette comfortably seating four.

The attention to detail speaks volumes in the wood joinery and cabinetry. The master stateroom has plenty of storage and hide holes. The bathroom off the master has a fully enclosed shower with tons of teak detailing. The second bathroom is conveniently located by galley and second birth with two well designed bunks perfect for friends and family. The boat has a propane out board and a foldable dinghy included with the package.

Hart's Desire, at 36', has more room than many of larger vessels for a token of the price. The Heritage East Sundeck Trawlers are tried and proven to be well prepared vessels. This boat is ready to cruise to its next exotic Port or provide a water front cottage. This boat will appeal to many buyers with its diversity and creature comforts. In this market "Hart's Desire " will not last long!
